The last leap year dance to be given under the auspices of Court Camoes No. 8110, A. O. F., on the 29th of this month at San Antonio Hall, promises to be a popular affair. This will be absolutely the last chance the ladies will have for four years of making the men feel what it is to be a "wallflower." The ladies in charge of the affair are Mrs. C. Colton, Miss Borges, Miss Margaret Tollerfson and Miss Hendrickson.

Mrs. F. Howard Humphris is giving a picnic party today at the Mc-Clanahan home in Moana valley for Mrs. F. H. Humphris of England. Nearly fifty people will be in attendance.

SOCIETY

The Christmas holidays are almost at hand and the gossip in society circles is largely concerned in what Santa Claus will scatter in the Paradise on Christmas morn. Social activity, however, will not lapse as many little events are in the wing and the New Year will open with a number of functions.

Percy W. White, brother-in-law of James B. Castle, has returned from Europe. His son, Percy Jr., returned with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Atherton departed yesterday on the Mongolia en route to Mrs. Atherton's home in the middle States. Mr. Atherton is much improved in health during his long sojourn on the slopes of Haleakala, Maui.

Capt. Lyons, U. S. N., and Mrs. Lyons entertained at dinner at the Hawaiian Hotel on Tuesday evening for Capt. and Mrs. Graham.

Mrs. Richard Ivers returned on the Sonoma after a long visit in San Francisco as the guest of Mrs. W. G. Irwin.
She was ill in San Francisco for a couple of weeks before sailing for Honolulu.

Princess Kalaniana'ole departed quite unexpectedly yesterday on the Mongollia to join the delegate at Washington, where she will spend the winter. She was escorted to the steamer by Prince Kawananakoa.

There was much regret in social circles over the failure of the Logan to remain in port last night in order that the advertised concert of the Filipino Constitubulary band could be given last night at the Alexander Young Hotel.
A number of dinner parties had been talked of to take in the concert.

Captain and Mrs. Lyon may take the Schulz home on Nuuanu avenue for a year.

Mrs. R. de B. Layard and daughter have been at Haleiwa for a few days.

Mr. B. L. Marx, accompanied by his mother and sister, arrived on the Korea Friday from Europe. Mr. Marx made the grand tour.

Princess Kawananakoa received informally on Friday afternoon at the Campbell residence on Emma street, assisted by Mrs. William Purdy. A large number of callers came and enjoyed a cup of tea and a chat with the hostess. Miss Cunha and Miss Dickson poured tea.

Miss Nellie Kitchen arrived during the week from New York and will remain in Honolulu during the winter with her relatives, the Tenneys, Her-berts, Macfarlanes and Mrs. Noonan.

Mr. Barbour Lathrop of cotton fame in Honolulu a few years ago passed through on the Korea en route to the Orient.

A large dinner party was given on Tuesday evening at the Moana Hotel by Mrs. Ernest Hartmann, who departed during the week for New Mexico. There were eighteen guests.

Lady Heron returned from New Zealand on the Ventura after a visit of about eleven months with Canon and Mrs. Kitchin. Lady Heron is at present the guest of Mrs. Danford.

Miss Alice Ewart and Mr. Emil Waterman were married on Wednesday evening at the Ewart home. They will occupy the Kube home on Lunaliio and Kapiolani streets.

At home cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane and Miss Alice Macfarlane for Saturday, December 10, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Simpson departed yesterday on the Mongolia en route to Portland, Oregon. The Woman's Guild of St. Andrew's Cathedral presented the couple with a set of souvenir spoons. Rev. Mr. Simpson has filled the pulpit at St. Andrew's very acceptably during the absence of Canon Mackintosh.

Mrs. F. L. Hoogs and children arrived on the Sonoma from the mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paton may return in a short time to spend several months in the city.

The Macfarlane mansion on Punahou street will be occupied again by the family. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane may again take up their residence there.

Princess Kalaniana'ole entertained a party of friends at the Parker ranch over the Pali during the week. Among those in the party were Dr. and Mrs.
Hobdy, Mr. and Mrs. George Smithies, Miss Mary Low and Mr. Clarence Waterman.

Mrs. Margaret Miller arrived on the Korea and will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Fyler. Mr. Fyler is Mrs. Miller's brother.

Mrs. Macfarlane gave a pretty tea yesterday afternoon at Waikiki.

Mrs. Eben Low is in town from Hawaii.

Mrs. Rena Turner (nee Dowsett) is at present in France.

Mrs. Paul Jarret is visiting in the city.

The boxes at the operetta last evening were filled with society people. In one was Mrs. Alex. Isenberg and party.
The loges had merry parties.

Capt. M. B. Perry, paymaster in the United States army, was a passenger on the Logan. He goes to a tour of duty in the Philippines.

Choose Furniture as You Would a Partner--- You Are Going to Be Together a Long Time.

We have carefully thought out the whole Christmas problem—the result is that we have an assortment of fine goods that in design, material, workmanship and price cannot be equalled in this city.

Of the hundreds of handsome articles suitable for gifts we will mention only a few, but request your presence at the store to see the scrumptious goods.

Come and sit in the big leather chairs. Some of them cost $85 each, but there are many much cheaper. The weathered oak Spanish chairs with leather seat and back are very handsome and low priced.

Morris chairs are in great variety this Christmas.

Sectional bookcases, combination secretary and bookcases, parlor tables, chairs and rockers, ladies' dressers, chiffoniers, etc., Cheville mirrors in attractive frames of gilt, oak, etc., all sizes and shapes.
